

Workshop Manager

Company & Role

Royston is a dynamic and expanding diesel engine supply, service and repair company that has operated successfully within the global marine and offshore market for more than 40 years. With bases in the UK, Nigeria and Australia, the company has gained an excellent reputation in the marine industry.

We are looking for a driven workshop manager who can effectively manage the day-to-day operations of the workshop in a timely, cost-effective manner to meet customer demand.

- Reports to: Operations Manager
- Location: Newcastle Upon Tyne, UK office

Role purpose and Key responsibilities

- Manage day to day operations of the workshop
- Produce quotes for repair and overhaul of engines, components, and ancillary equipment
- Provide technical support to customers and engineers
- Maximise existing relationships identifying opportunities for additional business
- Ensure all supporting documentation meets the standards required standard
- Generate/Manager QHSE documentation
- Maintain security standards of grounds and workshop

Essential criteria

- Medium and High speed engine and ancillary equipment knowledge
- Management skills including recruitment, motivation, training and development
- Project planning
- Excellent communication skills
- Marine and Offshore industry experience
- QHSE knowledge

Salary Package

- Competitive salary
- 25 days holiday
- Company pension

If you have the necessary skills and experience, please send your CV and covering letter to Lesley-ann.hardman@royston.co.uk